County Treasurer-Elect Sefton Spent Largest Amount yet Filed. Others Made Large Contributions to County Committees.

A period of thirty days is allowed candidates at the recent general election to file the accounts of their expenses, and most of those who ran for the major offices are taking their time in preparing their statements. Several days after the election E. P. Miller, associate judge-elect, filed his account, and now four others have sworn to their expenditures. It will be noticed that party committee assessments figure largely in the accounts.

It cost Brady M. Sefton $729.60, to be elected county treasurer. He spent $235.10 for personal and traveling expenses; $200 he paid to the Republican county committee; and $81.10 for advertising. The balance was distributed to individuals in sums ranging from $1.00 to $20.50.

Clinton A. Rife spent $84 in his successful campaign for the office of director of the poor. The Democratic county committee received $30, and he spent the balance for advertising and traveling expenses.

Harry B. Slagle, one of the successful candidates for the office of county commissioner, spent $177.00, of which $100 was paid as his assessment to the Democratic county committee; $20 for messenger service; $35 for personal expenses; $19 for advertising; and $3 for team hire.

Charles E. Stable Esq. spent $162.00 in his campaign for the office of district attorney. Of this amount $100 was paid to the Democratic county committee; $31.40 for advertising; $21.50 for automobile hire; and the remainder for personal expenses, stationery, and transportation of voters.

The candidates for the borough and township offices are filing their statements also, but all of them, have sworn that they spent less than $50 and they were consequently relieved of the necessity of making itemized statements.

RECOVERED TEAM

Kept Hired Horse and Vehicle for too Long a Time.

William Miller, a Chambersburg hiveryman, who had a team missing for several days, came to Gettysburg Thursday, his team having been located by the police. Clarence Irvin, of Chambersburg, hired the team more than a week ago for several days. Mr. Miller did not learn of the team's whereabouts until early this week when he was notified that Irvin had left Darlington, Md., a distance of eighty seven miles on his way towards Chambersburg. It was expected that Irvin would arrive home Wednesday evening. After he did not arrive at a reasonable hour the Gettysburg authorities were communicated with and it was learned that Irvin had arrived in Gettysburg on Tuesday. The authorities were directed to hold the team until the arrival of Mr. Miller.

URGE STEPS FOR BETTER SCHOOLS

Teachers Pass Set of Significant Resolutions before they Adjourn. Two Organizations Elect Officers: Governor Present.

A most encouraging spirit of progressiveness was manifested in the resolutions adopted by the Sixty First Annual Teachers' Institute before the adjournment this morning. Every phase of school activity, looking toward advancement, was approved and teachers asked to co-operate in the general movement forward. The measure as adopted was as follows:

"That we urge all teachers to interest their pupils in the Boys' and Girls' Agricultural League; that we urge all teachers to interest their pupils in the Debating League; that we encourage the teachers to endeavor to organize parent teachers associations, literary societies, debating clubs, etc., for the upbuilding of the communities.

"That we urge all teachers to become acquainted with the Arbor Day exercises and that they observe it in an appropriate manner; that we actively co-operate with our county superintendent in all his efforts to make better the school system of Adams County; that we entreat all teachers to become members of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association, and that we urge as many as possible to be present at its meetings December 28, 29, and 30, at Scranton;

"That we commend Governor Brumbaugh in securing the passage of the new Child Labor Law;

"That we urge all school districts to have an industrial exhibit (said exhibit to include articles made by the pupils, local productions and material secured from manufacturing firms);

"That to our worthy county superintendent, to our able assistant county superintendent, to the instructors and entertainers, to the members of the orchestra, to the leader of songs and pianist, to the press of Adams County, and to all who have helped to make this a profitable and happy week, we extend our hearty thanks."

The Institute also passed a separate resolution expressing sympathy to Prof. W. A. Burgoon in his sickness and hope for his early recovery.

The committee on the spelling contest submitted a recommendation the holding of another contest along the same lines as last year. The report was adopted. As in last year's contest an average of 98 must be made at the preliminary tests to have the pupil qualify for the final match.

Governor at Institute

Governor Brumbaugh dropped in upon the Teachers' Institute Thursday afternoon and gave a short talk before the largest audience of the week. He said:

"I am glad to appear before you in this historic place. If there is anything we need above all else, we need to teach the love of country in our schools. In our own State we have more vital points of interest than in any other state in the Union, among which are Gettysburg, with its glorious history, Valley Forge, with its historic hills, and Carpenter's Hall.

"I want to see this state controlled so that the run element will be eliminated."

YOUNG OFFICER IN CZAR'S ARMY

Has Friends in Gettysburg who Have Followed his Unusual Career. Now the Highest Ranking American on Battlefield.

Gettysburg people will be much interested in a dispatch from Washington which states that one of the young surgeons in the United States Army, who has a number of friends here, has entered the service of the czar.

According to advices received from Petrograd, Dr. Philip Newton, of Washington, who went to Russia shortly after the outbreak of the war in charge of an American Red Cross unit and later married a Russian princess, has been appointed surgeon of the Czar's Sixth Army Corps, with the rank of General. This makes Doctor Newton the highest ranking American citizen on duty with a European army.

Doctor Newton is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, class of 1912. While he was on a mission to the Philippines for the Smithsonian Institute, his fiancée, Miss Alice Dorothy Nixon, of Washington, was drowned at Colonial Beach, a pleasure resort on the lower Potomac River.

Doctor Newton was a visitor in Gettysburg in May 1912, a short time before his graduation from West Point. He has a number of acquaintances about town who have followed with interest his unusual career since that time, and who will be still more concerned now since he has been assigned to such an important rank in the Russian service.

The principal address will be made by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh. The other speaker will be Dr. William A. Granville, president of Gettysburg College. Dr. M. Wertz, president of the board of trustees, will preside and deliver the address of welcome. State Secretary Caruthers will be present and make a few remarks. Architect Walter F. Shattuck, of Chicago, who designed the building, will be present and make a brief address. Contractor A. R. Warner will deliver the keys to the association.

MORE ENTERING TIMES CONTEST

People Over County are Anxious for their Schools to Take up Offer. Beginning of Week will See Most of the Schools Enter.

Inquiries are now coming from different sections of the county from people who want to know if the schools in their locality will take advantage of The Times' offer. It is gratifying to be able to announce that the plan is being accepted generally. In a few instances teachers do not think they will enter it.

Taking up the proposition means a little additional work and where the instructor does not care to assume this labor the school is the loser. The Times has done its part. But there are always a few instances where people will fail to do what is good for them. It is by reason of this they are not further advanced in life.

The Times, already pre-eminent beyond question in its field, is willing to sacrifice profit, or actually goes to an expense of hundreds of dollars that the county schools may have some things which will be of advantage to the pupils. It presents a popular plan that meets with the approval of the school authorities. The children are anxious to enter it and their parents, in most cases, are free in expression of its praise. Now, it is up to the teacher to give his or her help.

Chances to earn money with little work and no expense seldom come. This is the first of the kind ever offered here. If the teacher just remembers to systematize the work by having each pupil gather the names of people in his community, who are not Times or News subscribers and, when this list is compiled, assign a number to be interviewed by every one of the school children, a wide range of territory may be covered in a short time. Before the children go to solicit the subscribers, however, it will be well to fix upon the thing you want for the school, so they can tell the subscriber exactly how his money will be spent. There are exceedingly few families who will not want to help when this is explained to them.

When you do go into it, start with a will. Why not fix upon the $50 in gold for your school? Some one will get it. The chances are equal, and this sum would make a mighty fine start for a library or a substantial

CUT HIS THROAT

May Die From Rash Act Committed at Lafayette, Indiana.

Charles Loy, 39 years old, of Hanover, cut his throat with a razor, Wednesday at Lafayette, Indiana, where he was employed, according to a dispatch from that place to-day. His recovery is said to be doubtful. Loy claimed that he was driven to desperation by a prolonged fit of coughing. He entered a barbershop and borrowed the razor. Stepping outside the door he drew the blade across his throat, inflicting a gash which it required 34 stitches to close.

Loy is said to have a wife and child in Hanover.

ITALIANS LAND AT SALONIKA

Serbs, Defeated, Retreat to Albanian Border.

PRILIP TAKEN BY BULGARS

Ferdinand's Army Marching on Monastir, Toward Which British Are Hastening.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—Official Turkish advices received from Constantinople report that Italian troops have reached Salonika on five transports and are being disembarked to go to the assistance of the Anglo-French expedition in Serbia.

In German official circles it is believed that the landing of Italian troops on Greek soil will arouse Greece to determined action. Italy and Greece have long been trade rivals in the Orient and both desire advantages in Asia Minor.

Serb Position Desperate

London, Nov. 19.—The Bulgarians have entered Prilip, after a junction with the Bulgarian army coming from Tetovo, according to an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

The Bulgarian advance on Prilip followed immediately on their capture of Babuna pass, which 5,000 Serbs held for sixteen days against 20,000 Bulgars.

The Serbs forced back by the Bulgarian advance have retreated to Ochrida, about forty-five miles southwest of Prilip, on the Albanian frontier.

The population of Monastir is reported to be panic stricken and preparations are being made to evacuate the town.

An Athens despatch to Paris says that British troops well supplied with artillery left Salonika for Monastir on Tuesday.

Successes for both the French and British forces in southwestern Serbia are reported in Paris by the Athens correspondent of the Havas agency. According to this information which the correspondent says is unofficial, the Bulgarians have lost the town of Kasturino to the French and have been defeated by the British on the Valondovo-Rabrovo front.

The main Serbian army, under General Putnik, which is operating in the north, is now encompassed on every side but one, and, being cut off from the south by the Bulgarian advance, must depend upon the rough roads through Montenegro and Albania for any supplies from the sea.

The Austro-German forces in the north continue to press back their opponents, Berlin announces. The town of Rumsynia has been occupied by German troops after being abandoned by the Serbians. Several hundred Serbians and a number of cannon were captured.

ENTENTE TO COERCE GREECE

Teuton-Bulgar Successes Lead to Drastic Steps.

London, Nov. 19.—As fresh victories for the Teuton-Bulgar allies in Serbia are announced the entente powers have decided upon coercive measures for Greece.

As a first step, Great Britain and France have decided to hold up Greek ships in Anglo-French waters until Greece gives certain assurances.

The order holding Greek shipping in British ports was issued. Notice was served on sixty Hellenic vessels not to sail until further notice. Reports that Greek ships and sailors had been seized in British ports were officially denied. It is said that no further loading of Greek ships in British ports will be permitted.

RUSS TAKE Foe's TRENCHES

Germans Are Thrust Back in the Dvinsk Region.

London, Nov. 19.—Infantry action has ceased for the moment on the Riga front.

But Russian destroyers have bombarded the northern coast of Courland, which suggests that General Ruzsky has not finished the offensive west of the Baltic port.

West of Dvinsk, Petrograd reports, the Germans were driven from some of their trenches and compelled to fall back. Below Dvinsk the invaders tried to cross the Dvina at several points, but were repulsed. On the Sty the battle continues.

The Russian reports that a Zeppelin flew over the Dvinsk district and dropped bombs. Some of the bombs fell into the German trenches, causing heavy losses and a panic.

Churchill Off for Front

London, Nov. 19.—Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty and chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, left the front in the uniform of his regiment. His wife bade him farewell at the railroad station, where he passed unrecognized on the platform as he waited to enter a special car.

French Won't Stop Using Gas.
Paris, Nov. 19.—The army committee of the French senate presided over by Georges Clemenceau, adopted a resolution urging the unrestricted use of asphyxiating gas by the French troops.

SAY U-BOAT IGNORED U. S. SEA RIGHTS

Casting Passengers Adrift Is Contrary to Law.

Washington, Nov. 19.—While the United States will wait for the Austrian reply to Ambassador Penfield's inquiry concerning the circumstances under which the Italian liner Ancona was sunk, it was stated officially that the placing of American citizens in small boats on the high seas was not regarded as according them "a place of safety" within the meaning of the term used in international law.

In its correspondence with Germany over the Frye case, the American government expressed the view that open boats did not constitute a place of safety. This was broadened by an official interpretation to apply to American citizens whether traveling on belligerent or neutral ships.

The first official report, alleging that the submarine continued shelling the Ancona after she had halted, was made by Dr. Cecile L. Grell, of New York, the only known native American survivor of the tragedy.

The text of the message which was sent by American Consul Mason, of Algiers, follows:

"Cecile L. Grell, intelligent, impartial witness, deposition not conclusive as to whether any effort was made to escape by Ancona. First intimation danger when she was in dining saloon. Disturbance on deck, stoppage, or blowing of whistle, followed shortly by shots which struck vessel. Testimony preclude (probably means proven) that bombardment lasted forty-five minutes and was continued after vessel had stopped, killing and wounding many persons. She saw destruction of vessel by torpedo; saw red and white flag and six cannon on submarine. Knows nothing as to other Americans."

BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Jewelry Thief Gets $1000 in Reading Apartment House.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 19.—A bold daylight robbery occurred in the heart of the city when the apartments of Mrs. Herbert Seidel, wife of a leading business man, were entered and $1000 worth of diamonds, rings and bracelets were stolen.

The jewelry was taken from a dresser drawer and a considerable amount of money and silverware were left behind.

The boarding house of Mrs. Minnie Kelsor, a short distance away, also was ransacked by a man who represented himself as a musician and engaged a room, afterwards disappearing with a gold watch-ring and other pieces of jewelry from the rooms of other boarders.

Signs New "Dry" Laws

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 19.—Revision of Georgia's prohibition laws, one of the purposes for which the legislature is in special session, was completed when Governor Harris signed the last of a series of bills designed particularly to banish from the state all breweries, locker clubs, and "near beer saloons." All of the bills become effective May 1, 1916.

Deny Lindsey New Trial

Denver, Col., Nov. 19.—Ben B. Lindsey, judge of Denver's juvenile court, was denied a new trial by Judge John Perry, in district court, here. Lindsey recently was fined $500 and costs for contempt of court as a result of his refusal to divulge as a witness information imparted in a conversation with Neal Wright, twelve, whose mother was being tried for the murder of her husband.

BRITISH GAIN AT DARDANELLES

Off Wins 280 Yards of Turk Trenches.

BUT MAY ABANDON FIGHT

Lord Lansdowne Says Question of Continuing the Campaign Has Been Put Up to Kitchener.

London, Nov. 19.—Announcement made of a 280-yard gain in a new British offensive at the Dardanelles came simultaneously with the revelation in the house of lords that the government was awaiting Earl Kitchener's report before deciding whether or not to abandon the whole Gallipoli campaign.

The advance on the peninsula was made, according to official announcement, by the fifty-second division which successfully attacked the Turks in the Krithia-Nullah section, near the tip of the peninsula. It captured 100 yards of trenches to the east of the defile and 120 yards to the west. (A division is normally 12,000 men.)

The vexed question of abandoning the expedition as openly advocated for some time past, came to the front in the house of lords when Baron Ribblesdale, addressing a question to the Marquis of Lansdowne, said he understood Lieutenant-General Sir Charles C. Monro, the new commander of the British expedition at the Dardanelles, had reported in favor of the withdrawal of the British army there.

Lord Lansdowne, answering the question, told the peers that the government had asked Earl Kitchener to visit the eastern Mediterranean because, in his opinion, the report of Sir Charles Monro and the evidence accompanying it did not seem sufficient to enable the government to come to a conclusion upon the great question of policy involved.

The Marquis of Lansdowne's statement that the government had sent Lord Kitchener to the near east to get more light on the Dardanelles situation following the receipt of Sir Charles Monro's apparently unfavorable report, throws some light on a declaration made by Premier Asquith in the house on November 11.

Mr. Asquith, in denying that Lord Kitchener had resigned or offered to resign, said that the cabinet had determined to send the war secretary to the near east on Thursday, November 4, because of "serious information" that had reached them the previous day.

Sir Charles Monro was sent to the Dardanelles to relieve General Sir Ian Hamilton on October 18. General Hamilton arrived in England to report on the Dardanelles campaign on October 26.

FURS GIVE GIRL ANTHRAX

New York Victim Believed to Have Got Disease From Neck Piece.

New York, Nov. 19.—Miss Sophia Rosen, seventeen years old, the third anthrax victim in this city within the last few months, died here.

The girl is believed to have contracted the disease, which is common among animals, by wearing a fur neckpiece, the skin of which had not been properly treated.

When the girl was admitted to the hospital Wednesday her case was diagnosed as drug poisoning and acute nephritis. Three hours later she became unconscious and died. A culture taken from her neck showed anthrax bacilli.

GOVERNOR WON'T REPRIEVE HILLSTROM

Condemned Man to Be Shot in Utah Today.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 19.—Governor Spry has declined to interfere further in the case of Joseph Hillstrom and has written his reasons in a telegram to President Wilson, which has been unanimously concurred in by the board of pardons.

Hillstrom, a Swede, and I. W. W. poet, is under sentence of death for murder. His execution by shooting has been fixed for today.

It was stated that the I. W. W. would not be allowed to hold any more meetings. In consequence of threats, Governor Spry rode to his office in an automobile guarded by three armed men. Three hundred special officers are guarding public buildings. Special guards were also provided for the members of the board of pardons. Trains entering and leaving the city are watched.

Considerable resentment has been aroused throughout the state over what some term interference by the president in Utah's affairs.

The president first intervened on the request of the Swedish minister and the execution originally set for October 1 was postponed. No new facts were found by the state pardons board and the date of execution was set for November 19.

In Utah the law permits a person condemned to death to choose between hanging and shooting as the means of execution.

Walker put the eggs in a fruit jar and "set" his improvised incubator in the warm rays of the sun. He expects to wait thirty days for the hatch to come out, and says if he has good luck there will be about a quart of little copperheads in the jar.

May Stop Steamship Service

London, Nov. 19.—The correspondent at Zurich, of the Central News forwards a report that it has been decided to suspend steamship service between Italy and America until arrangements are made to deal adequately with the submarine menace to shipping in the Mediterranean.

Done are the tolls and the warlike marches.
Done is the summons of bugle and drum.
Softly and sweetly the sky overreaches.
Shedding a land where rebellion is dumb.
Dark were the days of the country's derangement.
Sad were the hours when the conflict was on.
But through the gloom of fraternal estrangement
God sent his light, and we welcome the dawn
O'er the expanse of our mighty dominions.
Sweeping away to the uttermost parts.
Peace, the wide flying, on untiring pinions.
Bringing her message of joy to our hearts.

Out of the blood of a conflict fraternal.
Out of the dust and the dimness of death,
Burst into blossoms of glory eternal
Flowers that sweeten the world with their breath.
Flowers of charity, peace and devotion
Bloom in the hearts that are empty of strife;
Love that is boundless and broad as the ocean.
Leaps into beauty and fullness of life.
So, with the singing of psalms and chorals
And with the flag flashing high in the sun.
Place on the graves of our heroes the laurels
Which their unflinching valor has won.
—Paul Laurence Dunbar.

Anyone who rides a bicycle or runs a motor car knows that the way to go straight and avoid obstacles is to look past them down the road. By looking at the obstacles, one steers right into them in spite of oneself. So in life, when obstacles are ahead one should look past them, keep the eye on the right road, and so win past and forward.

His Failure.

"Ah! What scanty knowledge we have of what the future holds in store for us!" solemnly remarked Professor Pate. "When I was a freckle-faced lad, with the nail of one or the other of my superior toes chronically turned back like the clasp of an old-fashioned portemonnaie, how little did I realize that I should grow up and not be president!"—Kansas City Star.

When Rug Curls.

WASHINGTON WAS LEADER OF RACE

Former Slave Rose to Be Great Educator of Negroes.

FOUNDER OF BIG INSTITUTE

Tuskegee is Known All Over the Country as the Best School For Colored Persons in the United States—its Head Was Friend of Two Presidents and Other Noted Men.

Booker T. Washington, who died the other day, was the most widely known man his race has ever produced in this country and its foremost educator. Born of a slave mother into slavery, the fortunes of his life led him to be White House guest of a president at luncheon, to be entertained and received by queens and princes abroad, to have Harvard and Dartmouth universities confer degrees upon him and to die leaving behind him a record of achievement and ability which is generally considered never to have been equaled by any one of his race.

It was with the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute that Dr. Washington was most generally associated. From its foundation in 1881 until his death he had been its principal. Under his management and leading this school for negroes had grown from a shack in which thirty pupils gathered for lessons to one of the largest and most magnificently equipped normal educational institutions in this country, where more than 1,500 negro boys and girls, young men and women, annually receive instruction.

But Dr. Washington's work was not confined to the administration of one school. Its importance, it is generally acknowledged, lay in his national leadership of his race. Into practically every state of the Union the negro educator went, giving advice to his people, spreading his influence, dealing with their problems whatever they were.

Trusted by Roosevelt.

In 1894 he accepted a luncheon invitation extended to him by Theodore Roosevelt, then president.

Included in the number of Dr. Washington's close personal friends may be mentioned such men as Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Oswald Garrison Villard, President Kelley of the Title Guarantee and Trust company, Andrew Carnegie, Jacob Schiff, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Robert Shaw Minnott, Felix M. Warburg, William Jay Schieffelin, Dr. Hittis, Seth Low and Governor Whitman.

Began Life as a Slave.

Dr. Washington was born in 1857 or 1858 at Hales Ford, Franklin county, Va. A few years later the family which owned him moved to West Virginia, where the boy was put to work in salt works near Madison. About the time the war ended he began to show a desire for an education. He went to school about two months a year and read and studied at night.

In 1871 he heard of the Hampton Institute at Hampton, Va. He walked part of the way to Hampton and studied at the institute, from which he was graduated with high honors. He returned to West Virginia, where he taught school for a time and then went to the Wayland Institute in Washington. From there he was called to Hampton as teacher. After two years of this General S. C. Armstrong was asked by the citizens of Tuskegee, Ala., to find some one to start an institution at that place similar to the one at Hampton. He recommended young Washington, and the latter took the job, going to Alabama in 1881.

Dr. Washington had been married three times, his third wife surviving him. His first wife was Fannie M. Smith, whom he married in 1882 and who died in 1884. She was a graduate of Hampton, and the wedding took place in Tuskegee. In 1885 he married Olivia Davidson, one of the teachers at the school. She died in 1888, and Dr. Washington married Margaret J. Murray, graduate of Fisk Institute, in 1893.

He leaves three children, two sons and a daughter. His daughter, Portia, was born of his first marriage. His two sons, Booker T., Jr., and Edward Davidson, of his second. All three were educated in the north.

FOR U. S. SECRET SERVICE.

This Country Planning a System That Will Rival Europe's.

The United States will have a secret service to match that of any European nation within the next twelve months.

The need of such a branch of government, in whose service would be included men in all walks of life actually engaged in business or the professions or trades, as is the custom in Europe, was made obvious by the activities of the foreign agents in this country.

To make possible the creation of such a secret service congress will be asked to appropriate a sum reaching into the millions.

These secret service agents, it is proposed, will not have any badges, cards or other means of identification. They will be carried on the payrolls only by number, and their names will be known only to their immediate superiors.

Resolution Means Much. To think we are able to do almost to do nothing is a sad state of affairs. To have about one of our own people who is a secret service agent is a sad state of affairs. To have about one of our own people who is a secret service agent is a sad state of affairs.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil—food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

PLAN TWO HUGE BATTLESHIPS

Daniels' Plan Calls For Largest Dreadnaughts Afloat.

FOR U. S. ARMOR PLANT

Congress Will be Urged to Fit the Philadelphia and Mare Island Navy Yards to Build Warships.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Tentative plans are being considered, Secretary Daniels said, for two 36,000-ton battleships to be included in the first year's part of the five-year building program congress will be asked to approve.

There are no warships so large afloat anywhere in the world now, and the biggest ever designed for the American navy are the 32,000-ton craft of the California class, two of which were authorized last year and bids for which have just been received.

Part of the increased displacement in the newest ships will be due to changed hull construction to provide additional torpedo defense bulkheads. While the general characteristics of the ships have not been disclosed, it is probable they will have increased armament and speed. The navy has developed a sixteen-inch rifle of which no use has yet been made, and the new ships may carry ten or more of these if developments of the European war indicate the wisdom of mounting them. The largest guns now afloat are the fifteen-inch weapons of European navies, which the American fourteen-inch rifle is said to equal for all practical purposes.

Maximum speed of American battleships now built or authorized is less than twenty-two knots, although European first line ships go considerably above that. It is considered probable that a speed of perhaps twenty-five knots will be sought hereafter.

Secretary Daniels has received no report on the examination of private bids received for battleships 43 and 44, all of which appeared to be above the limit fixed by congress. It is understood, however, that a careful analysis of the exceptions to advertised specifications bears out the indications that private builders will not attempt to construct the hulls and machinery within the $7,800,000 limit.

Neither ship can be laid down before next summer, it is said, for lack of structural steel, the war having swept the American steel market clean. Secretary Daniels showed considerable concern over this fact.

He will again urge congress, however, to authorize construction of a government armor plant, and will also seek appropriations to fit the Philadelphia and Mare Island yards for battleship building.

PENROSE AND PRESIDENCY

Senator Repudiates Announcement of Candidacy at San Antonio.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19.—United States Senator Penrose is reported to have repudiated at Denton, Texas, the announcement attributed to him from San Antonio that he would be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination next year.

Politicians in Philadelphia are not inclined to take the first story as official to take the first story as official announcement of the senator's candidacy until a complete report has been received. While they were awaiting verification the despatch from Denton arrived quoting the senator as denying the previous statement.

$15,000 FIRE IN LANCASTER

Blaze Destroys Clothing Establishment and Damages Candy Store.

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 19.—Fire of unknown origin, which for a time threatened the entire downtown section of this city, destroyed Herman Jacob's clothing store, at 46 East King street.

The blaze soon spread to Hardwick's candy store, adjoining, and did damage to the extent of $10,000. The entire damage was estimated by the owners to be more than $15,000. All the city's apparatus was summoned to fight the blaze.

Every man is arrogant or humble, according to his fortunes.

UPHOLDS DOCTOR IN LETTING BABY DIE

Coroner's Agent Says Child Was Mentally Defective.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Complete vindication of Dr. Henry J. Haiselden, the surgeon who declined to operate on the defective Bollinger baby and thus save its life, will be recommended to the coroner's jury which is to conduct an inquest.

The recommendation for vindication will be made by Dr. H. G. W. Reinhardt, chief coroner's physician, who conducted a post mortem on the six-day-old infant an hour after its death in the German-American hospital.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman had indicated that unless the post mortem proved the child a mental defective, Dr. Haiselden might be tried for criminal negligence.

"The examination shows that the probabilities are strongly that the child would have been a mental defective," Dr. Reinhardt said.

"It would have been a paralytic all its life. My own opinion is that Dr. Haiselden was right in not allowing the baby to live."

A jury of six of the best physicians and surgeons of Chicago will be chosen to hear testimony at the inquest, Coroner Hoffman announced.

Dr. Haiselden expressed satisfaction when told the inquest had been ordered though he said the baby's death from natural causes rendered one hardly necessary.

"Any true investigation will make it more clear to the public that I am right," he said.

HUGHES NOT A CANDIDATE

Requests That Name be Kept Off Nebraska Primary Ballot.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Associate Justice Hughes, of the supreme court, notified the secretary of state of Nebraska that he would not be a candidate at the coming presidential primary election, and requested that his name be not placed upon the ballot.

The formal declination of Justice Hughes, to which he took oath before a notary, was as follows:

"A petition having been filed with you on November 13, 1915, requesting that my name be placed upon the official primary ballot of the Republican party for the primary election to be held in Nebraska on April 18, 1916, as a candidate for the office of president of the United States, I hereby notify you that I decline the nomination made by this petition, or similar petitions, and request that my name shall not be placed upon the ballot for such primary election."

Clerk at First Thought Application for License Was Joke.

El Paso, Nov. 19.—Miss Jessie Margaret Corn and Stanley Duncan Cobb were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Corn, on North Santa Fe street.

When Cobb went to the clerk of records office to get the marriage license the clerk refused to issue it, thinking it was a practical joke. It was not until the bride's mother insisted the Corn-Cobb wedding was on the level that the license was issued.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

THANKSGIVING VEGETABLES.

All the vegetables should be prepared, ready to cook, on Wednesday.

Squash.—Choose a hard shelled one. Cut in pieces and scrape the inside, steam, then scrape with butter, salt and pepper.

Boiled Onions.—Onions are often spoiled in cooking. Choose small white ones. Peel and cover with boiling water, in which one teaspoonful of soda has been dissolved for each quart. This removes a strong yellow juice, which otherwise discolors the onion while cooking. Drain, cook in plenty of salted boiling water until soft, but change the water as it grows dark. Dress wholly with hot cream or butter and salt and pepper.

Baked Sweet Potatoes.—Wash well and boil with skins on. When cooked let cool and remove skins; cut in thin round segments. In your baking dish put a layer of sweet potatoes, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and small bits of butter, then another layer of potato, and so on until you have what you wish to use; then pour milk over all and bake in a slow oven.

Spanish Macaroni.—Fry onions in a bit of butter and olive oil until brown, add a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a teaspoonful of chili powder. Put a half cupful of macaroni into boiling water salted and cook until tender, about twenty-five minutes. Place the drained macaroni in a buttered baking dish and pour the onions and half a can of tomatoes over it. Mix well and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake a half hour in a moderate oven.

Baked Sweet Peppers.—Make a stuffing of finely chopped cold meat, bread-crumbs and enough milk to form a paste; season with salt and pepper to taste. Cut off tops of sweet peppers, scoop out seeds, wash and fill with stuffing. Put a small piece of butter on top of each pepper, place in a baking pan and bake in a moderate oven for three-quarters of an hour.

MAKING LARGEST MIRROR.

Pittsburgh is Completing One That Weighs More Than Two Tons.

In a lecture at Pittsburgh Dr. J. A. Brashear, president of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and one of the most eminent astronomers, revealed to his audience that there is nearing completion in that city, under the direction of James B. McDowell, the largest reflecting mirror ever made. It is seventy-two inches in diameter and weighs two and one-quarter tons, with a focal length of thirty feet. The mounting is being made in Cleveland, and when the telescope is finally set up on Saanich hill, British Columbia, the total weight will be some 250 tons.

Grinding of the immense piece of glass, Dr. Brashear said, was not a very difficult operation, but workmen were now engaged in correcting possible error to the one two-hundred-and-fifty-thousandth of an inch of a parabolic curve.

STRONG DESERVE THE FAIR.

Attest They Got Them, According to Divorce Court Testimony.

"To the strong the fair," commented Judge Morgan of San Francisco in granting a divorce to Duke R. Lee, a strong man in a circus, from Elizabeth Lee, a bareback rider.

Lee testified he was married in New York in 1911. Shortly afterward, he said, his wife became acquainted with Lee Sampson, who, he admitted, was stronger than he was. In fact, second to none in the United States. "As soon as she discovered that Sampson was stronger than I she left me for him," said Lee. "She is still with him."

Bull Upset Justice.

An enraged bull attacked a justice of the peace of Langanreagh, County Donegal, Ireland. The man was sitting on a bridge when the bull came at him and tumbled him into the water. It went in after him, seriously wounding him about the head and body. Some farm hands managed to drive the bull off and rescue the justice.

Novelist Was Haitian.

It is a strange fact that the turbulent and primitive land of Haiti should produce Alexander Dumas, the world's greatest writer of adventure stories, an artist of high attainments and a great personality. He was born in Haiti of native and white blood.

HERE'S NATURE'S OWN REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Hyomei Relieves Catarrh Without the Use of Dangerous Drugs.

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a real remedy for catarrh was known.

Hyomei is an oil and its air is breathed through a small inhaler furnished with it for a few minutes a day, and during that time every particle of this Hyomei-laden air takes into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with a powerful germ killing and health-giving antiseptic.

Sprays and lotions often cause disorders of the respiratory tracts or orders on some other diseases and never make a permanent cure of catarrh. But when the air of Hyomei penetrates to the inmost air cells of the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen it not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but kills the bacilli in the blood, freeing the mucous membranes from poisonous microbes and giving perfect health.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

The People's Drug Store have so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who is not thoroughly satisfied.

WEAK AND TIRED WOMAN

Tells How Vinol Made Her Strong

Gettysburg women who are weak, run-down and suffer from the consequent effects of such a condition, will be interested in Mrs. Odell's letter she says:

"I am a farmer's wife and was all run-down, weak, tired and suffered from indigestion, and sometimes it seemed as though I could not keep around and do my housework. I had taken many medicines without benefit. One day I saw Vinol advertised, and made up my mind to try it. I have taken four bottles and have gained seven pounds in weight, am much stronger, and feel many years younger than before." Sarah Odell, Lockport, N. Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of the three most successful tonics, peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the strength-creating, body-building elements of fresh cod's livers without oil, and beef peptone.

We want to say to every weak, run-down, overworked woman in Gettysburg that we will return your money if Vinol fails to help you as it did Mrs. Odell.

His Point of View.

"What do you think about national preparedness?" asked the militant person. "I dare say it's a very good thing for a nation," replied Mr. Twobottle thoughtfully, "but in my relations with Mrs. Twobottle, I find a policy of non-resistance more conducive to peace and harmony in the family circle."

The taxation of salt as a source of revenue is a favorite subject to many countries. There are ten countries in the world, namely, Austria-Hungary, China, Greece, India, Italy, Japan, Roumania, Serbia, Switzerland and Turkey where government salt monopoly prevails.

FULL OF RHEUMATISM?

Your Case is not Hopeless When You Know Where to Seek Relief.

The People's Drug Store or any druggist in this city will promise to give your money back if you are not cured of rheumatism after using two bottles of genuine Rheuma. To those who know the wonderful results secured with Rheuma this offer is not necessary, but there are many who have failed to get results with other medicines and this offer is made to convince the sceptical.

Hear what T. M. Baird, of Dalton, Mich., has to say: "I was taken with rheumatism in my hips and limbs. It was all I could do to walk or work. Last spring I tried a bottle of Rheuma, and three bottles did the work. I am not the only one here who has been benefited." Rheuma rids the system of uric acid, the poisonous sediment which is the chief cause of rheumatism.

Be sure to get the genuine—ask for Rheuma in liquid form, 50 cents.

I will be in Gettysburg at Pen Myer's Jewelry store every TUESDAY to examine eyes and fit glasses

Increased Business-- With no Let Up In Sight

Everybody—whether directly affected or not—feels the throb of increased industrial activities over the entire East. Thousands of dollars are distributed weekly in wages—and like throwing a pebble in a pond radiates in circles until all people are reached. This awakening over the land of what were sleeping, and at best half time factories, has so increased the demand for all kinds of textiles that in many instances prices have greatly advanced—this applies specially to the raw materials of Cotton, Wool and Silk; increased wages, and greatly increased cost of Dye Stuffs, in some instances from three to five hundred per cent, has made nearly all goods in our lines higher with a great scarcity in primary markets every where.

We have in a great measure forestalled these advances by early purchasers, so that our stock is unusually large now, and at practically less price than same goods could be replaced. All this helps to account for the increased business we are pleased to say we are enjoying this Fall, and we further wish to say that while present stock lasts we will make no advances.

An Unusual Stock in Every Department.

A Thanksgiving Family Party

By DONALD CHAMBERLIN

The most delightful part of my life was that age when boys and girls free to mingle with each other as friends, half-boy and girl, half man and woman.

There was one Thanksgiving when the head of our large family invited every member that could be reached to spend a week in his large country house. Including Thanksgiving day. There were brothers and sisters, cousins, second cousins and third cousins. Many of my relatives I had never seen.

Those of us of my generation went in for a good time together. The girls were of that age when a taste for mischief predominates. Nothing seemed to please them so well as to perpetrate some innocent practical joke on us boys. A third cousin of mine, Becky Aldrich, one morning while watering some plants with a sprayer sprinkled the back of my neck. Though she was behind me, she failed to escape before I saw who she was.

One night when I was getting ready for bed I found the legs of my pajamas sewed up. When I had ripped the sewing, got them on and tumbled into bed I found the sheets scratched. I uttered one exclamation and heard a giggle at my door. I had turned off the light, so, springing out of bed, I tiptoed hastily to the door, opened it and was in time to grab the last of a flock of girls who ran away in the darkness, for they had taken the precaution to turn off the lights in the hall.

Throwing my arms around my captive, I gave her a smack, she struggling to be free, then let her go. Slipping back into my room, I turned on a light, and there sticking on to the breast of my pajamas was an elongated pin of chased gold set in the center with a single sapphire.

The problem was to identify the girl I had kissed by discovering the owner of the pin. Had it been a cheap article I would have had little chance of doing so, for the girls would all stick together to keep the secret. I consulted with my men cousins, and it was decided that I should put the article up at auction at the Thanksgiving dinner, bids to be accepted only from the men.

Accordingly when the nuts and coffee came on I took the pin out of my vest pocket and, holding it up before the company, said:

"I found this article recently and would be happy to return it to the owner if she will claim it and prove ownership."

I swept the board with my glance, but saw no sign of a giveaway on any girl's face.

None of them claimed the find. They continued:

"Since there is no claimant for the article I will put it up at auction, reserving the right to bid to the men present of my own generation, the proceeds of the sale to go to charity."

The girls looked at one another curiously, not knowing what was coming. I called for bids, and one of my cousins, Jack Somers, bid 25 cents. There was an exclamation of disapprobation for such an offer, and when another of my confederates bid 50 cents it was repeated. The gem alone could not have been worth less than $25. When every man who was permitted to bid had done so $2.75 was the highest offer received.

I knocked the article down to the successful man, Jim Atwood, and he handed me the money. While pretending to be interested in the payment I was keeping one eye on the girls, hoping to see some sign of protest against her property being sold out in this way before her face. Had it not been for Jim's assistance I should not have been successful in my game.

"What luck!" he exclaimed, holding the pin before him admiringly. "I've wanted something like this for a gift to my fiancée, and now I have found it."

The fact of another girl possessing her jewelry was too much for its owner. Becky Aldrich showed by her expression that she was at least to be suspected. I took the pin from Jim and tossed it to her. A telltale blush confirmed my suspicion, and the eyes of all the company being concentrated on Becky, it deepened into scarlet. Then there was a burst of laughter, in which every one joined heartily but Becky.

This, it seemed to me, was a famous victory, but there is a saying "He who laughs last laughs best." Becky pretended to be very much offended with me for the course I had taken. This caused me to feel uncomfortable, and I endeavored to placate her. Placing a girl in a dangerous business, Becky for a long while refused to be appeased.

I tried presenting flowers, but they were accepted coldly. Then I suggested that a mate to the pin which had made all the trouble would look very well beside it. Becky pretended to be still more offended that I should offer her jewelry and would not accept the excuse that I was her cousin.

To make a long story short, Becky played me as an angler would play a trout till I was madly in love with her. Having refused me, she seemed to be satisfied and thereafter treated me so considerably that I tried again and was successful. Naturally the anniversary of Thanksgiving brings to me interesting memories.
